This year's AQUALBA Staff has in its turn produced an AQUALBA. Whether the book is good, bad, or just another annual we must leave to the judgment of you, our readers. However, we do want to thank you, faculty, students, photographers, printers, engravers, and all the rest whose help is necessary in preparing a book, for your splendid cooperation and support. Without them we on the staff could not have done our job.

The members of the staff are as follows:

Mr. Earl Cox

Now we are ready to introduce to you, our reader, the people who make up our school proper. On the following pages you will meet our superintendent and faculty and those who assist them to keep our school running efficiently. You will see yourself with your fellow classmates. Farther along you may see yourself again as the member of an extra-curricular activity. We hope you will find yourself in this section more than once, since it is through these activities that you have an opportunity to develop into a well-rounded person and to acquire the ability to get on well with other people.

On September 7, 1943, a small but intelligent-looking group of future citizens became members of Whitewater City High School. Miss Maerzke and Mr. Slowey became our able class advisers. At the general class election the following officers were chosen: Don Millis, president, Dick Chamberlain, vice president, and Joan Cox, secretary-treasurer.

This class was so perfectly cooperative in its freshman year that it didn't have to have any meetings. One notice was posted of a meeting but it was found to be unnecessary.

Many of the freshmen did their part to add to the extra-curricular activities of the school. The "frosh" also had more than their share of an honored place on the bench in the office. This was due to the faculty's unusual interest in our class.

Our sophomore year found us with a great reputation of being the "do nothing" class. However, we held a meeting and elected some new officers. These were Jerry Steck, president, Joan Cox, vice president, and Mary Jane McQuade, secretary-treasurer. At the Homecoming of 1944 the mighty sophomores entered a horse and buggy in the parade, but many said that the horse was more spirited than the students.

But we didn't want to give them everything at once. We were waiting to place emphasis on our last two years of high school, and we did. For where in the history of our school would you find a more brilliant group of students than the juniors. Our well chosen officers were Dick Chamberlain, president, Mary Jane McQuade, vice president; and June Stelse, secretary-treasurer. Our first big thrill was to select our class rings. We could hardly wait until they arrived. This junior class was active in choir, band, F.F.A., G.A.A., debate, forensics, Hi-Y, and last but not least "detention." Cloie Hall and Mary Jane McQuade did their share to keep the cheering going. Several left our group and went into the service of our country. Our junior class was very well represented in school athletics. In April came the biggest event of the year, the annual prom. Our King Dick Chamberlain and Queen Beverly Sievert reigned over a very gala event. It couldn't have been a more delightful evening.

The senior class of 1946 presented the spade and spoon to Dick Chamberlain and June Stelse, respectively.

Our fourth and final year has finally arrived, the greatest year of all. With one of our advisers, Mr. Slowey, gone from our faculty into an enterprise of his own, another worthy faculty member filled this vacancy. He is Mr. Garriott. Russell Jolliffe, Douglas Parker, and Cloie Hall were our class officers. To the tune of "Stardust" Homecoming King Jerry Steck crowned Queen Mary Jane McQuade. Again, as in other years, our class was well represented in all organizations throughout the school. In the massed band and massed choir concert there were quite a few from the class of '47. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Finnigan, the class play was put on. This year it was "Here Comes Charlie." "Charlie" was ably characterized by Mary Mae Krueger. Everyone agreed it was a great event. The D.A.R. award was given to Mary Mae Krueger.

Now there will be the big events of commencement week which will bring this famous class of 1947 to the end of its days in high school. As we go throughout the years which are ahead of us we will always retain those pleasant memories of our four years in high school.

JUNIORS MAINTAIN SCHOOL'S RECORD for SUCCESSFUL PROMS

The "up and coming" class of '48 has completed another successful year toward reaching its high school goal of graduation. During the year the class underwent several changes in its officers and advisers. In the regular election Bill Rowe, Dick Thayer, and Dorothy Mackovich were chosen to head our class but because Bill and Dorothy left our school, they were replaced by Dick Thayer, president; Gerald Harris, vice president, and Winfred Stacey, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Lund and Mr. Franzmann acted as class advisers until Mrs. Lund's resignation when her place was taken by Miss Gehrman.

The juniors participated in the usual extra-curricular activities: Hi-Y, G.A.A., F.F.A., choir, band, newspaper staff, Library Club, W Club, forensics, basketball, football, baseball, and Red Cross. The class float made its customary appearance in the Homecoming Parade. It's too bad they didn't offer a "booby" prize.

The big event of this year was the Junior Prom. The theme was a distinctly novel one. Upon entering the gym one was enchanted by the decorations designed to represent "The Old Lamp Lighter" and also by the music of Bob Edgar's band. Reigning on this grand occasion were King Dick Thayer and his Queen Marianne Kettwig.

With such a perfect climax to its third year it is to be expected that this class will ably fill the places of this year's graduating seniors.

The sophomore class, at its first class meeting, chose Jack Cummings as president, Margaret Nicoson, vice president, and Bob McCauley as secretary-treasurer. While we have lost many from our last year's record-breaking enrollment of over a hundred we still have the distinction of being the largest class in school.

Out of our eighty-four members, many are active in G.A.A., Hi-Y, newspaper, plays, forensics, debate, band, and choir. Some of the sophomores have participated in mass band and choir and have played both on the A and B basketball and football teams. We are also represented among both senior and junior cheerleaders. This year our class was very pleased to win an honorable mention for its float in the Homecoming Parade. Our theme was "We'll Drive Marengo Buggy," and we really did. Many of us attended the Homecoming Dance. In fact, a rather large percentage of our class has attended all the school mixers and dances.

Our class is fortunate in having two very efficient class advisers, Mrs. Finnigan and Mr. Johnson. We have appreciated their helpfulness in the various activities of our class.

In contrast to the unusually large freshman class of last year, which numbered well over a hundred, this year's group of sixty-six seemed quite small. However in pep and school spirit—and maybe brains—this is no insignificant group, as time will no doubt prove.

The class officers chosen under the guidance of the advisers, Miss Krause and Mr. Wyse, are as follows: Ralph Frisco, president; "Rusty" Fero, vice president; and Donna Cooper, secretary-treasurer.

The favorite subjects of the freshmen seem to have been gym, study hall, and Latin while freshman members were to be found in all outside activities. A new organization this year known as the Junior Cheerleading Club was made up almost entirely of freshman girls. These girls, under Miss Lagler's direction, led the cheering for the basketball games played by the "B" team. One of our members, Ray Steck, was a senior cheerleader.

Special mention should be made of the freshman "get acquainted" party held in the gym on November 18, 1946. The juke box furnished the music for dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Wyse, and Miss Krause chaperoned the party. Bill Wright who seemed to be especially skilled at doing the schottische and John Mackovich in his bright suit and bow tie were the "belles of the ball."

This has been a good year and a good start toward graduation which is the goal of every incoming class.

The first edition of the City High Line was issued to the student body on October third. From then on it has been distributed every two weeks all through the year with extra editions for holidays and commencement.

The staff was headed by June Stelse and Mary Ann Ashworth with Marilyn Burhans acting as managing editor. They were assisted by a large staff of department editors and reporters who, with the able help of Mrs. Andersen and Mrs. Finnigan, put out a very interesting and entertaining newspaper that represented a good coverage of the important school news.

Much credit should be given to the artists who designed the clever covers used on the newspaper. They were Audrey Berg and Bonnie Skindingsrude.

In addition to general news stories there were sports stories, interviews with seniors, faculty news, humor, gossip, fashions, and announcements. The grades were also represented by write-ups devoted to their special activities.

The paper was entirely self-supporting with the necessary money being obtained through student subscriptions and a mixer or two. A slight increase this year in the subscription rate from fifty to sixty cents helped to offset the increased costs of paper and production.

A welcome feature of this year's vocal music work was the re-establishment of the a cappella choir under the direction of Mrs. June Arnold. This large group of about seventy voices, including a liberal sprinkling of male vocalists, made its first appearance of the year at the Armistice Day program. They performed again at the Christmas program, which was an evening program open to the public.

Feeling the need for new robes the choir sponsored a dance "Wonder Land" on January 25. The gym was decorated to represent a toyland replete with lollipops, teddy bears, and the like. From the proceeds a start was made to build up a fund from which the choir may, at some future date, be more suitably outfitted for concert appearances.

Seventeen members of the choir were chosen to sing in the mass choir concert at Milton on March 5. They were: Grace Cooley, Beverly Sievert, Jean Willegal, Marion Harris, Lois Suby, Mary Jane McQuade, Shirley Chapman, Mary Ann Ashworth, Maxine Millis, Mary Anne Froemming, Doris Schlitz, Don Ebert, Ray Steck, Dick Gerke, Don Nelson, Jack Cummings, John Tuinstra, Jerry Kitzman, and Bill Mackie.

Preparations for the spring concert and music tournament kept the choir busy during the final months of the year. All in all, it has been a very successful year, vocally speaking.

--- BAND

When high school started out with a "bang" in September, so did the band. It wasn't long, however, before the band was playing as a harmonious unit. This was due partly to the proper replacements for last year's senior members having been found, and partly to a little "friendly persuasion" on the part of the director, Mr. Patt.

The first appearance of the band in dress uniform was made at Homecoming, when they led the parade through town and paraded on the field during the half, forming an M for Marengo and a W for Whitewater.

On February 12 our school was again honored by acting as host school for the massed band concert under the expert direction of Dr. Frank Simon. This was Dr. Simon's third appearance at our school as guest conductor for this event. At the evening concert he played his last public cornet solo.

A new feature offered by the band this year was the addition of a marimba which was played by Kay Spuhler of the eighth grade. This instrument gave a pleasing variety to our band concerts and made it possible to work out new "sound effects" in the band numbers.

A small group from the band formed a pep band which played at rallies and basketball games throughout the season. They are deserving of a lot of credit for providing the necessary spark to set off the enthusiasm of the crowd.

Through most of the year, but more especially during the spring months, the band concentrated on the selections to be played at the annual music festival. This event was again held in Whitewater with the College High as the host school this year. Preparation for this event, along with a possible spring concert, made necessary many long, hard hours of concentrated practice for both the band and its director, and as always the results were a credit to the school.

Many Students Assist In School Library

The Library Club was organized this year under the guidance of Mrs. Finnigan. The membership consisted of all those who were interested in library work and who wanted to help in study halls, handing out library material. Mrs. Finnigan had the people who were interested in library work as a career help her with the card catalog and get books ready for the shelves.

The main job of the student librarians was to take charge of the study hall library. Under certain regulations students were permitted to draw dictionaries, encyclopedias, and other reference books for use in study halls. In addition several newspapers were obtainable including "The Chicago Tribune," "The Milwaukee Journal," and the "Whitewater Register." Magazines were also available. These included "Life," "Colliers," "Woman's Home Companion," "Liberty," "American," "Saturday Evening Post," "Reader's Digest," and "Seventeen."

Mary Anne Bray was elected president, Don Ebert, vice president, and Dorothy Wegner, secretary-treasurer.

The Library Club sponsored a mixer and also had a float for Homecoming. The float consisted of a teacher, a Marengo player, and a Whitewater player. It was teaching Marengo how to play football.

At their meetings the group discussed ways to improve the library and also brought up problems concerning their work. Throughout the year a profitable time has been enjoyed by all.

While the need for Junior Red Cross services has decreased with the war's end, schools have continued to become members of this organization and Whitewater City High was no exception. Early in the fall a council was organized to conduct a membership campaign. This council consisted of representatives from each grade beginning with the fourth. Several high school organizations were also represented. These students visited all classes during the membership drive and made an appeal to students to join the Junior Red Cross. As a result $33.33 was collected. Several rooms reported 100% membership; namely, the seventh and eighth grades, agriculture, geometry, English II and Latin 10.

Later in the year gift boxes were filled with small, useful gifts and toys to be sent to children overseas.

The council was in charge of Mrs. Lund of the high school faculty until her resignation in December. Since that time Miss DeYoung has been acting as the adviser.

The forensic department of our school is developing rapidly into a very extensive and worthwhile one, with a varied program containing something of interest to all students. Of the many things offered the following are outstanding:

ONE-ACT PLAYS

This year, under the direction of Miss Krause, two one-act plays were prepared and given. The first play, which was entitled "Supressed Desires" with three characters, played by Dave Duffin, Mary Mae Krueger, and Mary Jane McQuade, was prepared for a drama contest which was held at Oregon, Wisconsin, on November 22. This play was given a "B" rating which was considered satisfactory for a first attempt.

Later in the year a group of five students, Dorothy Mulks, Margaret Nicoson, Nancy Bogie, Eddie Gruetzman, and Ray Steck, presented the second forensic play entitled "Not Quite Such a Goose." This play was especially prepared for the drama festival at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, on February 20. The plays were not rated, but a critic judge made comments on the productions and gave helpful suggestions to the actors. Since the contest these students have presented this play at many clubs and organizations in and around Whitewater. It was also presented, along with several other numbers, at Burlington as our part of an exchange program with that school.

DEBATE

The debate question chosen for this year was Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Provide a System of Complete Medical Care Available to All Citizens at Public Expense. The affirmative team was composed of Rosemary Roe and June Stelse, with Mary Ann Ashworth as the alternate. On the other side the negative had Beverly Sievert and Mary May Krueger, with Eddie Gruetzman as the alternate. Miss Krause acted as the coach.

These teams attended a practice debate held at Rockford, Illinois, on January 18 where they met with very stiff competition from many schools. Our affirmative team returned with one victory to its credit.

On February 1, at Wisconsin High School in Madison, Wisconsin, a district debate was held. Our debaters were unable to attend because they were "snowed in", and as a result they were forced to forfeit their debates. This was a great disappointment to both the teams and their coach since this contest was to serve as a climax to a long period of hard work. We hope next year they will be able to complete their season more satisfactorily.

ORATORY and DECLAMATORY

The whole forensic program this year was off to a good start when a bus load of students went to Milwaukee on January 11 to attend a Speech Institute at Washington High School. Each of the twenty-six students who attended from Whitewater was interested in one special branch of public speaking such as serious and humorous declamations, extemporaneous reading and speaking, original and non-original orations, and four minute original speeches.

Coached by Mrs. Finnigan and Miss Krause the students prepared for the district contest held in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, on March 20.

Before this, however, a local school elimination contest was held with the following picked to represent our school in the district contest:

Serious declamation	Audrey Berg
Humorous declamation	Edward Gruetzman
Extemporaneous reading	Mary Ann Ashworth
Extemporaneous speaking	Mary Mae Krueger
Original oration	Richard Gerke
Non-original oration	John Tuinstra
Four minute original speech	Tom Kyle

"HERE COMES CHARLIE"

Standing: Mrs. Finnigan, J. Wiley, T. Young, M. Krueger, M. Bray, D. Duffin, M. McQuade, J. Willegal

Senior Class Play A Great Success

One of the best class plays to be given here in years was presented the afternoon and evening of February 21 when the seniors under the direction of Mrs. Finnigan introduced "Here Comes Charlie" by J. Tobias to the community. It was a farce comedy, full of humorous situations, and packed with laughs from start to finish.

The cast appeared to have been chosen well and every member did his part to keep the play moving. The cast of characters was as follows:

"Charlie" Hopps	Mary Mae Krueger
Uncle Alex Twiggs	Leslie Messerschmidt
Larry Elliott	Jerry Steck
Mrs. Farnham	Jean Willegal
Vivian Smythe Kersey	Helen Harris
Ted Hartley	Dave Duffin
Mrs. Smythe Kersey	Mary Ann Ashworth
Mortimer Smythe Kersey	Douglas Parker
Nora Malone	Janette Wiley
Tim McGrill	Thomas Young

In addition to the cast there were two student directors, Mary Jane McQuade and June Stelse, and many assistants and stage hands who put in long hours of work to make the production a success. They with the cast and Mrs. Finnigan are to be complimented on the fine performance.

MANY BOYS JOIN HI-Y

This year's Hi-Y Club was under the leadership of Mr. Franzmann. The club elected the following officers for 1946-47:

President	Dick Chamberlain
Vice President	Bill Miller
Secretary	Russell Jolliffe
Treasurer	Dick Thayer
Sergeant-at-Arms	Paul Rekstad

The club again undertook the job of building the Homecoming bonfire, and this helped to make the annual "pep rally" more exciting.

In October new members were initiated into the club in the traditional Hi-Y manner.

At the start of the second semester the club was assigned an additional adviser, Mr. Bartholomew, to work with Mr. Franzmann.

On February 8 the club held its annual "Snowball" which was a great success. In fact, the weather outside cooperated so well in providing the proper setting for a winter party that not all the rural students who would like to have attended the party were able to get in from the country. Penguins and snowballs adorned the gym and everyone spent an enjoyable evening. The music was furnished by Dick Smith and his orchestra.

The club expects to hold a picnic at the end of the year.

The Future Farmers of America is the national organization of, by, and for farm boys studying vocational agriculture in the public high schools. The organization has spread throughout the United States, the Territory of Hawaii, and the Island of Puerto Rico. The four degrees of active membership are: "Green Hand," "Chapter Farmer," "State Farmer," and "American Farmer." Advancement through these degrees is based on achievement in Vocational Agriculture.

The activities of our Whitewater Chapter include a program of leadership, community service, co-operation, membership, recreation, and earning and saving.

LEADERSHIP

QUARTET CONTEST—Competed with other chapters in area.

LEADERSHIP SCHOOL—Whitewater Chapter officers attended the annual leadership school at Racine Co. Ag. School

PUBLIC SPEAKING—Two members competed in area.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

GOOD EGG DAY—Members helped with, and exhibited at, Whitewater Good Egg program.

COUNTY FAIR—Members exhibited at Walworth County Fair

COOPERATION

BULL SALE—Members took part in a cooperative bull project in Walworth County.

MEMBERSHIP

8TH GRADE PARTY—Chapter entertained 30 8th grade graduates from the rural community around Whitewater.

PARENT AND SON BANQUET—40 members and their parents and guests attended this annual affair.

RECREATION

HARD TIMES DANCE—The chapter held the first dancing party of the year at the City High Gym.

CHRISTMAS PARTY—Santa visited the chapter just before vacation.

CAMPING TRIP—Over 40 members went on a one week trip to points of interest in Wisconsin and Michigan.

EARNINGS AND SAVINGS

REYNOLD'S PENS—Chapter sold Reynold's Pens to earn money for the treasury.

HYGRADE SEEDS—Seed sales helped the condition of our exchequer.

The change of school schedule at the beginning of the year made it difficult at first for high school activities to find adequate time for meetings. In spite of this handicap the G.A.A. managed to set up a program for extra curricular sports for the year largely by using the noon hour as an activity period. This program included hockey for the first quarter, volleyball for the second, basketball for the third, and soft ball plus various spring sports for the final quarter.

The group had a new adviser this year, Miss Lagler, the girls' physical education instructor. The officers of G.A.A. were as follows:

President	Mary Mae Krueger
Vice President	Winifred Stacey
Secretary	Rita Shroble
Treasurer	Marion Sandberg

The fall initiation was a great success with many girls presenting an entertaining spectacle for the rest of the student body as their "entrance fee" into the organization.

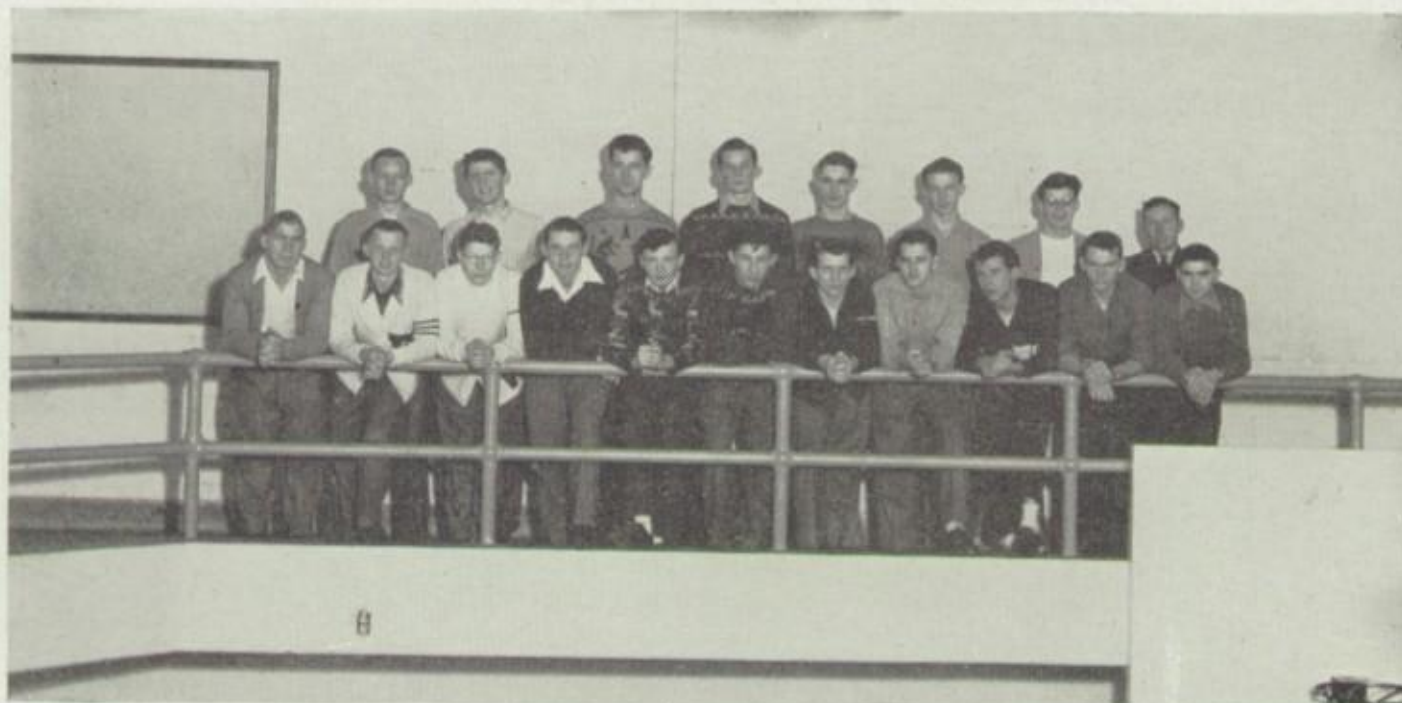

Two of the school dances were in charge of G.A.A. The first of these was the Homecoming Dance. The theme "Star Dust" was beautifully carried out in the decorations with ceiling streamers arranged to represent a star. The climax of the evening was the crowning of the King and Queen, Mary Jane McQuade and Jerry Steck.

The second party was the Gingham Ball, a traditional G.A.A. event, on March 14. The theme for this year's decorations was "Fiesta Time In Mexico." The senioritas with their colorful cotton dresses added a gay note to the scene.

One special honor was won by this year's organization in winning the first prize in the Homecoming parade float contest. A picture of this float, a fortune telling scene, is shown in the introductory section of the book.

G.A.A. has really proved itself a live organization in our school and there is no doubt that it will continue to be so in the years to come.

W CLUB

The W Club is one of several organizations which carries its members along from one year to another adding new names as boys become eligible for membership. This is done by earning 200 points in athletics. The points may be earned as follows:

- 10 points per quarter in football
- 5 points per quarter in basketball
- 3 points per inning in baseball
- 25 points per match in golf or tennis
- 15 points for regular attendance at practice.

It wasn't until March that the boys met to organize and elect officers. The following were chosen:

Bill Miller	President
Gerald Shroble	Vice President
Bob Frawley	Secretary-Treasurer

The Club sponsored several mixers during the year. Its activities were all conducted under the sponsorship of Coach Crummey.

Boys Win Homecoming Game

Our 1946 football team broke its "winless" record, maintained during the last two seasons, by winning one game. We defeated Marengo 20-6 in our Homecoming game. Since we were slated for only one victory, the team couldn't have picked a better day to "deliver the goods."

Jerry Steck was elected to serve as captain for the season and a better choice would have been hard to make. Varsity men playing their last game for City High were Russell Jolliffe, Jerry Steck, Les Meserschmidt, Ken Smith, and Dick Chamberlain.

The prospective crop of football timber looks fairly good and City High may be justified in looking forward to more and bigger victories before too long.

Our basketball team got off to a poor start this year when they were beaten in the first four games, but with the teams showing improvement they won their first game for the season by defeating Harvard 36-30. Although we lost the next game our team with their hopes high took Milton 33-19. The other three games that we took were against Burlington, Harvard, and Mukwonago which put us into the regional tournament. Even though we won only five out of the seventeen games played the boys leave basketball with a feeling that they will really be able to do something next year since the "B" squad is showing up some good material. The "B" team has played consistently good basketball all through the season and their experience here should mean some excellent replacements for next year's team.

For the first time this year an inter-mural basketball schedule was worked out for the seventh and eighth grades of our school against teams from Elkhorn, Fort Atkinson, and Jefferson. The score board registered three "wins" and three "losses" for the season with our team making a total of 135 points against 129 for their opponents. The starting line-up from a squad of about twenty players, consisted of Duerst (r.f.), Ambrose (l.f.), Parker (c), Fardy (r.g.), and Adsit (l.g.). Mr. A. G. McGraw Jr. was the coach and is deserving of praise in bringing this inexperienced material through such a good season.

Whitewater Competes In Elkhorn Tournament

Although the district basketball tournament at Elkhorn was not too much of a success for the City High, the boys did put up a good fight in the two games against Delavan and Wilmot.

In the game with Delavan we were only five points behind at the beginning of the fourth quarter when Delavan sank four baskets in quick succession, putting them clear out ahead and making the final score 40-27.

The Wilmot game was really a close one in that at no time was either team more than two points ahead of the other, but even with the boys trying to get ahead in the end they failed, losing the game at a score of 29-27 in favor of Wilmot. This game ended the tournament for us.

CALENDAR

The Year In Review

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 3—Enrollment again with the freshmen a little deeper shade of green than usual, and the seniors all taking themselves too seriously. New school hours cause many groans. 9:10 to 3:55 does not leave enough time for after school work at home. But have you seen all the new additions to the faculty?!!!

Sept. 8—Besides the new members of the faculty we have a new class, Art! The bulletin boards prove we have quite a few budding artists.

Sept. 9—Football is now in full swing! Jerry Steck is the captain this year. The boys, both short and tall, are going out as proved by Paul Rekstad and Bob Frawley.

Sept. 12—There's that man again, Nick Engler, with his hello, how do you do, and here's another subscription contest for you. His student helpers are Mary Mae K., "Dick" C., "Bob" H., and "Janie—What's this?!!? Homecoming queen to be chosen by the people who sell magazines? All senior girls eligible—Here's your chance, girls!! Get your friends out ringing doorbells!!

Sept. 16—Plans for this year's AQUALEA are in the air—Dwight Cooley is high salesman so far in the magazine campaign with $40 to his credit.

Sept. 17—Seniors pick out their graduation announcements and calling cards. Rumors are that some of the boys are putting "Money preferred," on their invitations.—G.A.A. initiation today. Luck was with the girls who didn't drop their eggs.

Sept. 19—Newspaper staff is organized. Every one agrees that June Stelse and Mary Ann Ashworth make good co-editors.

Sept. 20—First football game of the season. A non-conference game with Janesville. We lose!!

Sept. 24—Yep, this is the day!! Magazine campaign ends with the highest amount sold in 23 years, $1,045.75. Janie McQuade elected Homecoming queen.

Sept. 25—Headline! Bill Rowe is the junior class president and will also reign as prom king!!—Bong memorial drive opens.

Sept. 27—Our first conference game. We play Burlington—Lose again. The boys are saving their stuff for the Homecoming game, I guess—Let's hope anyway!!

Sept. 30—Sad news—Lawrence Jacobs suffers a serious accident—G.A.A. girls shiver as they play fieldball for their first regular meeting.

OCTOBER

Oct. 3—First issue of City High Line is out. Fluoroscope arrives for those who want an examination. No skipping school now, fellows.

Oct. 4—Another game—Lake Geneva, there. We're defeated.—There's a lot of small fry in that town, isn't there, Ray and Ed??

Oct. 8—They always say the early bird catches the worm, and so it is with dates to the Homecoming. Some of the couples are Thane Uglow and June Stelse, "Jim" O'Connor and Marilyn Burhans, "Mert" Gnatzig and Fran Roselle, "Russ" Jolliffe and Mary Roselle, just to mention a few.

Oct. 10—Homecoming court is announced.

Oct. 11—F.F.A. sponsors a hard times dance with floor show and everything. Thane makes a pretty good Sinatra, don't you think, girls? The game with Delavan scores us one touchdown. Can't say we aren't in there trying.

Oct. 14—Tryouts for choir are in the doing. The response is overwhelming.

Oct. 15—The speech class now know how good, (or terrible) they sound. They have their voices recorded at the Rev. Mr. Rekstad's—Suspense is over, kids. The cast for the forensic play is chosen. Dave Duffin, "Fran" Roselle, and Mary Mae Krueger. Good luck!!

Oct. 18—Everyone smile prettily. Fran Achen is here to take pictures for the AQUALBA. Harvard and Whitewater battle with Whitewater the loser again.

Oct. 22—Music meeting is held. Whitewater is again chosen as host city and College High as host school for the 1947 music tournament. What's this we hear about the forensic play cast sneaking in for refreshments.

Oct. 24—The juniors are positive their class rings are going to be the best ever. The annual bon-fire and snake dance are held in spite of rain. B team plays at Fort Atkinson.

Oct. 25—The Homecoming game proves a success. We beat Marengo 20-6. Despite the wind, each activity has a float participating in the parade. Queen "Janie" McQuade looks lovely on the arm of King "Jerry" Steck at the dance. Patsy Malone and Johnny Slowey do the honors of crown and flower bearers.

Oct. 28—It is rumored that the G.A.A. and 5th grade win the trophies in the Homecoming parade. Helen Sandberg certainly makes a good gypsy.

Oct. 29—What is this we hear about a Rainbow Dance at Elkhorn with Mary Jane McQuade asking Bill Miller?!?
